#JudoMontreal
We are looking forward to taking the IJF World Judo Tour to Canada for the inaugural Montreal Grand Prix.

This is a tremendous opportunity to further develop judo in Canada and the Pan American region.

I’m pleased to say that Canada is also a candidate to host the 2021 Cadet World Championships and this is an exciting time for Judo Canada.

I wish good luck to everyone and thank you in advance for your support.

Marius L. VIZER
President International Judo Federation
Dear Judoka,

On behalf of the Board of Directors of Judo Canada, we would like to welcome all of you to the first in history MONTREAL JUDO GRAND PRIX to be held in Canada on July 5th, 6th and 7th, 2019, which will involve all the federations affiliated to the International Judo Federation.

We are honoured and proud that this competition will be an official qualifier for the Olympic Games occurring in Tokyo 2020 and will deploy all our experience to offer the best ever Grand Prix. At the same time, we will organise a training camp at our unique and beautiful NTC from July 8 to July 11, 2019.

While waiting to see them participating and perform in Montreal, to the athletes, coaches and referees, we wish you all good luck and an excellent tournament. We hope that you can make fond memories that will last a lifetime.

Good luck in your pursuit of excellence and see you soon in Montreal.

A person of the athlete’s choice (team doctor, coach, trainer, delegation head etc.) may accompany them.

IJF keep the right to test any participating athlete beyond the above selection during an event. All additional tests are deemed in-competition tests.

13. GENERAL INFORMATION
FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES
All National Federations, officials, coaches and athletes participating in the event described in these outlines must respect and accept the authority of the IJF Officials, the IJF Statutes, the IJF Sports and Organisation Rules (SOR), the IJF Refereeing Rules and the IJF Anti-Doping Rules. Individuals deemed to have acted against the IJF, its principles or purposes should be subject to suspension or expulsion from the event and/or cancellation of their accreditation cards.

INSURANCE
Each National Federation is responsible for its competitors (the control of non-pregnancy as well as the control of gender are placed under the responsibility of the National Federations) and must assume all responsibility for accident and health insurance as well as the civil liabilities for their competitors and officials, during the event described in these outlines.

The organiser of the event and the IJF will not be responsible for any insurance related to the above-mentioned matters. Nevertheless, the National Judo Federation staging the event shall take all necessary actions to provide insurance coverage against civil liability for the entire duration. The organiser of the event and the IJF have no liability for any claims of injury, illness or death arising from the travelling to and the participation in this event.
ACCOMMODATION
All delegates inscribed for an IJF WJT event must stay in one of the official hotels, offered in the outlines by the organisers, for a minimum of two (2) nights, e.g. Total of 4 people inscribed in judobase = 8 nights or more must be reserved.

This rule does not apply to the host National Federation delegates.
Any damage to hotel property resulting from the stay of a national delegation will be charged to the national federation and must be paid in full.

Delegations are kindly requested not to dry clothing (including judogi) or have training sessions in the corridors of the official hotels.

According to the IJF rule enacted on the 2 December 2012 in Tokyo, “the organising country should not request penalties fee for participating countries who cannot make bank transfers but can pay in cash upon arrival. Those countries who cannot make bank transfers should inform the organisers well in advance that they will pay cash on arrival”.

COMPETITION RULES

Non-competing athletes or training partners can be inscribed as judoka.

After the deadline changes can be made one to one, like for like, due to injury or illness. For example, an injured athlete can be replaced by another athlete regardless of gender or weight category. An ill team official can be replaced by another team official etc.
ACCREDITATION
The purpose of accreditation is to identify people and their roles at events and allow them necessary access to perform their roles.

At least one team delegate must attend on time to confirm the entries of all athletes and officials with a signature on the delegation confirmation list. A delayed appearance or no-show may result in the exclusion of all participants from the draw and the event. In case of unforeseen delay of arrival, the National Federation must immediately contact both the organiser and the IJF registration team (registration@ijf.org).

For each official team member from a national delegation (athletes, coach, team official, doctor etc.) an accreditation card is issued by the IJF during the official registration. A delegate should never wear another delegate’s accreditation card. The accreditation card remains the property of the IJF and can be withdrawn, with immediate effect, at the IJF’s sole discretion.

The accreditation card is valid for the duration of the competition and is the personal identity document of the delegate for all security and access controls. This card contains: last (family) name, first (given) name, country, IJF ID number, a picture and for athletes their weight category and WRL position.

Quota for officials for accreditations (includes team officials, coaches, doctors and physiotherapists):
One – four (1-4) competitors = three (3) officials.

10 or more competitors = seven (7) officials.

The functions president, referee and judoka are not included in the above calculation.

The fee for the 8th or more team official(s) (must be inscribed in judobase) is 100 US$ per accreditation, to be paid to the organisers.

DRAW
Each National Federation must send at least one delegate to attend the draw. A maximum of three (3) delegates per National Federation (2 officials and 1 athletes’ delegate) will be authorised.

The top eight (8) athletes from the entered competitors in each weight category will be seeded according to the current World Ranking List.

The backnumbers must be fixed horizontally and centred on the back of the judogi. They must be placed at a distance of 3 cm from the bottom of the collar. The backnumber can only be ordered from www.ijfbacknumber.com or www.mybacknumber.com.

White judogi: IJF sponsor, blue judogi: Organiser’s sponsor

• Ensure the label is firmly attached around the edges.

Immediately after the competition and before washing remove the sponsor label.

The organiser has the right to charge for any sewing service that is deemed larger than a small repair.

COACHING
Coaches nominated by their National Federations should respect the IJF Code of Ethics and IJF SOR. Any coaches not adhering to these rules could be subject to disciplinary action.

AWARDING CEREMONY
